

The Mount Logan SYMPHONY

A community of musicians, USU Students and guest artists uniting to create fun, free, family-friendly concerts

Benefits to the community and USU students:

- USU students are given an opportunity to continue to learn and play. Non-music majors now have a place where they can continue to play their instrument, leading many to play continuously throughout their lives.
- Unifying the community. Creating relationships among fellow musicians, artisans and other musical groups throughout Cache Valley.
